

Since 2017, Anticaluna is an Italian cheese manufacturer located in Bangkok, producing stretched curd cheese (mozzarella & burrata) using organic raw materials directly imported from Italy.

The company focuses on quality and stability of the products made with traditional Italian recipes, following strict hygiene standards.

Today, more than 500 HORECA customers are satisfied with our products and services.

The new renovated area will be able to support the always increasing demand of the market.

OEM products are available.

Delivers directly in Bangkok area and overall Thailand.
